

Fight The Good Fight

Youth Engagement Specialist (Y.E.S).

Position Overview: As a Youth Engagement Specialist (Y.E.S), your primary responsibility is to support the holistic development and well-being of young individuals in a positive and nurturing environment. You will engage with youth participants to provide mentorship, guidance, and resources to help them navigate the challenges of adolescence and achieve personal and academic success. Your role involves fostering a safe, inclusive, and culturally sensitive space where young individuals can thrive and develop essential life skills.

Key responsibilities of Y.E.S

Content Preparation:

- Y.E.S are expected to prepare and deliver high-quality FTGF content relevant to their roles.
- Thorough research, attention to detail, and well-organized presentations contribute to effective communication and decision-making.
- Where applicable, provide acceptable personalised content that resonates with examples provided in the FTGF content.

Transport:

- The job involves travel, Y.E.S should ensure reliable transportation.
- Timely arrival at site meetings and events is crucial for representing the Fight the Good Fight positively.

Communication:

- Clear, timely and effective communication, both written and verbal, is essential.
- Y.E.S should actively listen, articulate thoughts clearly, and collaborate with colleagues to enhance team dynamics and overall productivity.
- Report any form of suspected suicide ideation through the appropriate channels.

Technology Proficiency:

- Stay proficient in the use of relevant technologies and tools required for the job.
- Embrace new technologies that can improve efficiency and effectiveness in the workspace.

Confidentiality:

- Respect and maintain the confidentiality of sensitive information.
- Safeguard proprietary data and intellectual property to uphold the trust and reputation of Fight the Good Fight and Love Somebody Charitable Trust.

Youth Engagement:

- Actively engage with youth participants through various activities and programs.
- Build positive and trusting relationships to create a supportive community.

Program Development and Facilitation:

- Contribute to the development and implementation of programs that align with the needs and interests of youth.
- Facilitate workshops, events, and activities to enhance skills and knowledge.

Cultural Competence:

- Demonstrate cultural competence and sensitivity in working with a diverse group of young individuals.
- Foster an inclusive environment that respects and celebrates cultural differences.

Conflict Resolution in Youth Settings:

- Possess effective conflict resolution skills specifically tailored to youth settings.
- Address conflicts among youth participants with sensitivity, aiming for positive resolutions.

Crisis Intervention:

- Be trained in crisis intervention strategies and protocols.
- Respond calmly and effectively to any emergencies or crisis situations involving the youth.

Professional Boundaries:

- Establish and maintain appropriate professional boundaries with youth participants.
- Ensure interactions are respectful, ethical, and adhere to Youth Worker Code of Ethics.